

Project Management

Prof. Caivano

Credits: 3 CFU (24 hours)

February-March 2018

Course Program

1. Project management: definition and historical remarks. The Project Management Institute
2. The processes and areas of knowledge of project management: types, articulation and interrelation in the planning, execution and closing phases of the project;
3. The PMO (Project Management Office) and the PO (Project Office);
4. The 4 basic questions of the Project Management:

- what (work breakdown structure; deliverable breakdown structure);
- when (Critical Path Method; Program Evaluation and Review Technique; Gantt Chart);
- who (Responsible Accountable Consulted Informed);
- how (Earned Value Management, etc.).

Exercise: Definition of a project idea with a draft of the organizational objectives and the articulation of the work phases.